

Lantal is the leading worldwide provider of textiles and services for aviation, railway and bus interiors applications. We work for rail and bus system operators, mass transit and tour coach organizations and all major rolling stock and seat manufacturers.

Purchase Specialist (JP 06012025)

Description:

This professional will work in Supply Chain team and will perform Production Planning and final goods Trading purchases with the aim of ensuring the efficient and strategic production, acquisition, optimising costs, deadlines and quality, while ensuring the correct and updated management of master data in corporate systems (mainly SAP).

She/He must have the ability to support the team also with other purchase and planning activities.

Main functions and activities:

- Negotiate contracts and conditions with suppliers, aiming for better prices, quality and lead time;
- Communicate with External Supplier and Internal Customer Service proactive and in professional way;
- Production Planning according to Orders;
- Manage Purchase Orders process end-to-end;
- Receive and confirm demands/orders from Customer Service;
- Collaborate with the production, quality and logistics areas to keep systems integrated and updated;
- Prepare periodic and ad-hoc reports and KPI's about suppliers performance, prices, delivery times, etc.;
- Market monitoring, research and benchmark analysis;
- Support team Supply Chain in different matters.

Working experience:

- +3 years experience in similar function
- Background in the Textile industry will be very well evaluated

Education and Skills:

- Degree in Administration, Engineering, Foreign Trade or related;
- Good skills in Excel, Word and PowerPoint
- SAP experience is a plus
- Availability to travel

Mandatory: Fluent in English, passionate for Procurement, good and clear communication/speech, autonomy, resiliency, capacity to work under pressure, goal oriented and team-work!

Application:

We are pleased that you want to become part of our team: HR Lantal, paula.santos@gv.lantal.pt